

EST.1988

Mark Asplin Whiteley

BESPOKE LUXURY FURNITURE

Kitchen with Japanese Blossom marquetry with wave profile lacquered drawers.

Mark Asplin Whiteley is an exclusive Bespoke Luxury Furniture Company- consistently supplying the highest level of quality individual pieces, kitchens and libraries to interior designers, architects, decorators and individuals for residences, hotels, commercial clients and super yachts in the UK and around the world.

Mark Asplin Whiteley works primarily in wood, but increasingly works at the cutting edge of trends in other materials and technologies, employing highly experienced and talented craftsmen and technicians to manufacture and install great product with a professionalism that has built up an enviable standing and reputation in the international interior design world.

You can call or visit our workshops in Whitby, or we can visit you to discuss your projects. Phillip Padden is our experienced representative covering London and the South of England.

We can be contacted with your individual requirements and questions at enquiries@markwhiteley.com for free advice, estimates or quotations about your projects.

See a brief selection of our work at www.markwhiteley.com.